

UNCONDITIONAL REFUGE AND HOPE

PHILLY'S LARGEST AND LONGEST-RUNNING
HOMELESS SHELTER FOR MEN

HOPE

BEGINS WITH

A MEAL

OUR MISSION

We open our doors every day with a welcoming spirit of Christian compassion, walking alongside the homeless, hungry and hurting of Philadelphia so that they may experience the love of God by acts of mercy, dignity and respect. More than just a safe space, warm bed and a hot meal, we empower everyone we serve through deep, intentional engagement with compassionate programs and trauma-informed care—activating their God-given potential for life transformation.

With 144 years of experience, we are the second oldest homeless mission in the country and the oldest in Pennsylvania, housing some 240 men each night. More than just a meal and a bed, we build relationships with our guests to give them hope and reorient their lives.

Our faith is the foundation of everything we do and compels us to treat everyone—our guests, volunteers and donors—with dignity and compassion.

Join us in supporting our mission.
